

How MAP Works

- Artists submit via email a jpeg of each work along with the application form on the inside of this brochure
- Submissions are juried by the PAC
- Selected artists commit to the loan of their art for a 12-month exhibition at Town Hall
- Selected artists' work and statements are featured in a brochure that visitors to Town Hall can use for a self-guided tour. The brochure is distributed throughout the region.

Past & Current Participating Artists include:

Don Kilby, Sue Miller, Gita Karklins, Sarah Begy, Adriene Veninger, Willi Wildman, Keita Inoue, Dragica Vidakovic, Liam Cantar, Martha Henrickson, Jennifer Woodburn, Lisa Rotenberg, Adele Derkowski, Angela Plesa

About MAP

- The annual Municipal Art Program (MAP) is an initiative of the Town of The Blue Mountains' Public Art Committee (PAC).
- Inaugurated in 2012, PAC is a volunteer committee appointed by Council for a four-year term.
- MAP provides the region's artists with the opportunity to promote their work and exhibit it at the Town of The Blue Mountains Town Hall.
