C. Matters for Discussion

C.1 Memorandum: Jennifer Moreau, Director of Human Resources Re: Council Feedback regarding Code of Conduct Draft

NOTE: Also included for reference is the DRAFT POL.COR.07.07 Code of Conduct for Members of Council and Local Boards, as presented at the July 3, 2019 Committee of the Whole meeting.

Director of Human Resources Jennifer Moreau provided an overview of the Memorandum which detailed Council feedback received at the July 3, 2019 Committee of the Whole meeting. Jennifer advised that following the Sub-Committee meeting, she will circulate back to the group for review, and provide to the Integrity Commissioner for input.

Reviewing the memorandum, the group requested the following:

1. The various sections of the Municipal Act, 2001 which detail local board exclusions should be included in the definition of a Local Board;
2. Page numbers should be added to the policy document for ease of reference;
3. Include definition for Commercial Confidentiality within the broader Confidentiality definition;
4. Provide a guideline for how matters can become public information, for example: confidential matters could become public at the discretion of Council;
5. In the forthcoming definitions of Abuse, Bullying, Intimidation, and Assault, the Sub-Committee requested that reference to Assault being a criminal violation be included;
6. Provide a "Frequently Asked Questions" or graphic representation which provides the definition of bullying and concrete examples;
7. Consult with the Integrity Commissioner to confirm if it is possible to release Complainant and Respondent's names when members of Council are filing formal complaints, or are involved in a formal complaint;
8. Define Discrimination in s.17 of the Code of Conduct Policy;
9. Ensure all defined terms are capitalized throughout the document.
