Enforcement Services

---

Report To: Committee of the Whole
Meeting Date: October 10, 2018
Report Number: FAF.18.137
Subject: Short Term Accommodation By-law Revision
Prepared by: Rob Collins, Director of Fire & Enforcement Services

---

A. Recommendations

---

THAT Council receive Staff Report FAF.18.137, entitled Short Term Accommodation By-Law Revision;

AND THAT Council approve the draft Short Term Accommodation Licensing by-law as attached to Staff Report FAF.18.137 and direct staff to include the draft Short Term Accommodation Licensing By-law on the November 19 Council Meeting for consideration and adoption.

B. Overview

---

This Staff Report contains the final draft of the revised Short Term Accommodation By-law, for Council approval. The recommendations from the October 10 Special Committee of the Whole Meeting will be considered by Council at the November 19 Council Meeting.

C. Background

Staff have been working toward a revision of the Short-Term Accommodation Licensing By-law, which has been in place since the Short Term Accommodation (STA) program started in 2014. The revisions are intended to define certain terms, specify occupant loads, and implement new policies for enforcement of STA regulations. The process has included a Public Meeting, and the comments from that meeting were communicated to Council as part of Staff Report FAF.18.126.

D. Analysis

The draft STA Licensing By-law, revised as per Staff recommendations and direction received from Council, is attached to this Staff Report. The By-Law has been reviewed by the Town's legal counsel.

The most significant changes to the By-law include defined maximum occupant for STAs in the designated Exception areas (two persons per bedroom plus an additional four persons), and in zones outside the Exception areas which allow STAs (maximum of 8 persons). The By-law also dictates that certain parking requirements must be met. Staff have recommended these occupant levels after analysis of life safety impacts, noise and disturbance statistics, as well as comments received through the public comment process. It should be noted that it has come to our attention that the occupant load recommendations are in conflict with the Property Standards By-law, which prescribes a maximum occupant load of two persons per bedroom plus an additional two persons. Staff continue to recommend the “plus four” model, for the reasons described in Staff Report FAF.18.126. Virtually all of the current STA licenses have been issued based on the “Plus four” model, and industry representatives have expressed concerns about the financial impacts of reducing those occupant limits. We would propose aligning the Property Standards By-law with the revised STA By-law when the Property Standards By-law is revised later this year.

The issue of enforcement of the STA By-law is also addressed. As discussed previously, enforcement of the By-law will be done through Provincial Offences Court, and all appeals heard by a higher Provincial Court. This approach will eliminate the need for a committee of Council to hear appeals of offences. Demerit points will continue to be assessed as has been our past practice, however Administrative Penalties will no longer be imposed, as they will be replaced by Court-ordered fines.

Recent changes to the Short Term Accommodation program’s structure will see the licensing portion of the program handled by Planning Department personnel rather than By-law staff. By-law staff will continue to handle the administrative portion of the program and will handle the enforcement of the By-law as required. The change will allow us to have three Municipal Law Enforcement Officers (MLEOs) dedicated fully to enforcement duties. This change will ensure that MLEOs can provide enforcement coverage Monday to Friday, from 7:00 am until 6:00 pm and Saturdays from noon – 8:00 pm.

The rest of the changes are administrative in nature, and have been detailed in earlier Staff Reports. They include new Defined Terms and language changes intended to clarify the By-law, and to reflect the changes in responsibility for specific areas which have come about due to changes within the Town organizational structure.
